Carl Iken

Candidate for Port St. Lucie City Council, District 1

The City of Port St. Lucie is currently over $2 billion in debt. In order to ensure our long term success we need leaders that are willing to reduce the size of the government, focus solely on issues that affect the health and safety of the people of Port St. Lucie. Any department or program that does not relate directly to the health and safety of the residents needs to be cut. On top of that, each department and program that will remain will need to be audited to find any waste and abuse that will also need to be cut. It is my position that the maximum salary of any Port St. Lucie City employee should be no more than 2.5 times the median income for the City. As the City improves and the median income rises, city employee salaries would be able to rise as well. Everything ties into merit pay for all employees and the removal of automatic annual pay raises. I hope you will vote for me as your next City Councilman on August 24, 2010.
