Tom Perona Fort Pierce City Commission District 2

Why I am running for the Fort Pierce Commission:

I have proven my commitment to this community through my 38 years of community service in both the private and public service arenas. I have the education, leadership experience, business knowledge, and interpersonal skills to dedicate to Fort Pierce on a Full Time basis. Fort Pierce needs someone with my background to work Full Time on solving its problems and promoting its economic growth.

Once elected, my top three priorities are:

Continue to build a plan for Fort Pierce's speedy economic recovery out of this recession. Evaluate all Departments of the City for improved efficiencies and increased levels of performance. Create a more effective and less adversarial/hostile avenue of communication between the Commission, City staff, City citizens and all of our neighboring governments.

Response to Questions:

It is important to realize that the answers to this survey reflect my decisions based on a general understanding of the issues addressed. Given a specific scenario, a decision could be altered to accommodate a better solution.

Having attended Catholic schools for 16 years including seminary, sensitive questions dealing with sexual preference, sex education, abortion and adult businesses do not necessarily reflect my religious beliefs or moral standard. As a public servant, we represent a community made up of citizens with a wide scope of interests and convictions. It is our duty as leaders to use our education, experience, and skills to set and enforce policies that best reflect the needs of the people without personal bias.

I invite anyone to contact me with any question or if a clarification is needed from my answers. Thank you.
